CORONATION CELEBRATIONS - Issue of passports to attend.

- - - -

In view of the approaching Coronation celebrations in the United Kingdom, it is necessary for the authorities there to be kept fully informed of the departure for that country between now and next May of persons of doubtful character. I shall be grateful, therefore, if you will kindly furnish me, from time to time and as far in advance as possible, with particulars of passports and sailing details of all persons of objectionable or doubtful antecedents who are likely to visit the United Kingdom in the course of the next four months. District Magistrates may be instructed to refer applications to the local police before forwarding them to Government for consideration.

In the present case prior information is of the greatest importance, and it is suggested that Distr Magistrates ask all doubtful applicants for passpor for sailing particulars on some suitable pretext or other.
